Past simple: regular and irregular verbs: Activity 1

Last summer my family and I went to Italy for a holiday. We rented (rent) a house in Umbria, in central Italy, about 5 km from a village called Gubbio. The weather was (be) fantastic, hot and sunny during the day, but cold at night. We did (do) different things every day. Sometimes we went (go) to Perugia or Assisi and visited (visit) churches and art galleries. On other days we stayed (stay) in the house. It had (have) a swimming pool in the garden, so the children were (be) happy. One afternoon an old man arrived (arrive) at the door.
'Good afternoon,' he said (say). 'I'm your neighbour. Are your children at home?'
'Yes,' I answered (answer). 'I think so. Why?'
'Because about an hour ago I saw (see) a small boy near the village. I think he was your son.'
I looked (look) out of the window. My daughter was (be) in the swimming pool, but my son wasn't (not be) there.
'Where did you see (see) him?' I asked (ask). 'Did you talk (talk) to him?'
'He was on the road to the village, but I didn't speak (not speak) to him,' the old man said (say).
'Come on,' I told (tell) my husband. 'We need to go to the village.'
The old man waited (wait) at the house with my daughter and we went (go) to the village. My son was (be) outside a café. He had (have) a big ice cream in his hand.
'Why did you leave (leave) the house?' I asked him. 'We were (be) really worried.'
'I wanted (want) an ice cream,' he said.
